

2021 Coleman Memorial Park Baseball Hitting Contest

The 35th Annual Coleman Memorial Park Baseball Hitting contest was held on Saturday, 21 August 2021. It drew contestants from 4 different states.

In the Adult Division, Justin Mease of Elizabethtown won his 11th overall title and first, since 2018, with a score of 11 homeruns – 112 points. Mike Brossman of Myerstown placed second with a score of 9 homeruns – 89 points. The defending champion, Dylan Sechrist finished third with 5 homeruns – 78 points. Dylan is from Palmyra. Cody Phillips of Jonestown was fourth with a score of 2 homeruns – 60 points, and Travis Thome of Newmanstown had a score of 1 homerun – 75 points to finish in fifth place.

Defending Legion Division Champion, Wyatt Menzel of Myerstown won his second title with a result of 4 homeruns – 77 points. Finishing second was Dallas George, also of Myerstown with 50 points.

Colten Shaffer of Lebanon, last year's Youth Division champ, moved up to the Teener Division this year and claimed that title with 52 points. This was his third overall championship.

Charlie Summers of St. Louis, Missouri, flew in just in time, to claim the Youth Division championship with a score of 34 points. He is the son of Shannon Summers, formerly of Palmyra who previously claimed numerous championships in the history of this contest. Second place was held by Alex Shaffer of Lebanon who compiled a score of 31 points. Caeden Sechrist of Lebanon finished third with 30 points. Jack Kleisath of Jonestown turned in a score of 28 points to finish fourth.

Jamye Bonanno of Lewisberry won her 8th consecutive and 15th overall Women's Division title with a score of 61 points. Sue Herb, the 2013 champion, from Lebanon finished second with a result of 30 points.

Tom Morgan Sr. of Lebanon, won his 4th Senior Division championship with a combined score of his age and batting points achieved with 121 points. Lyle Krall, Mr. Baseball of Lebanon County, finished second with a score of 112 points. Mike Miller of Annville, the defending Senior Division champ finished third with 102 points.

Profits from the event go towards yearly maintenance of the Coleman Park ball fields and also towards the Coleman Park Trust Fund, which currently stands at $ 23, 865.
