

2022 Coleman Memorial Park Baseball Hitting Contest

The 36th Annual Coleman Memorial Park Baseball Hitting contest was held on Saturday, 20 August 2022. It drew contestants from 3 different states.

In the Adult Division, Dylan Sechrist of Jonestown won his third adult title in 4 years with a score of 8 homeruns and 101 points. Matt Imboden of Hummelstown finished in second place with a score of 5 homeruns – 94 points. Devin Bucks, from Jonestown finished third with a score of 1 homerun- 60 points.

The Legion Division went unclaimed as there were no entries for that age group, 16 to 18 years of age.

Queston Rivera of Myerstown claimed the Teener Division title with a score of 54 points. Brian Bicksler of Jonestown finished second with 46 points. Colten Shaffer of Lebanon claimed third place with a score of 44 points. Cooper Sweitzer of Bainbridge finished in fourth place with 37 points. Fifth place went to Christian Herling of Annville who achieved 32 points.

The Youth Division was won by Nikolas Christman of Whitehall with a score of 43 points. Alex Shaffer of Lebanon finished one point behind with a score of 42 points. Third place was claimed by Caeden Sechrist of Jonestown with 40 points. Chase Norris of Lebanon and Blake Burdick of Mohrsville tied for fourth place with 38 point scores.

Jamye Bonanno of Lewisberry won her 9th consecutive and 16th overall Women's Division title with a score of 57 points. Sue Herb, the last person to claim the title other than Jamye, in 2013, finished in second place with a score of 31 points.

Tom Morgan Sr. of Lebanon, successfully defended his Senior Title and won his 5th overall championship with a combined score of his age and batting points achieved with a score of 117 points.

Profits from the event go towards yearly maintenance of the Coleman Park ball fields and also towards the Coleman Park Trust Fund, which currently stands at $ 25,533.
